

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

The Citizens' band has elected the following officers: President—John A. Shade. Vice President—John Lawler. Secretary—Harry M. Sample. Treasurer—Frank A. Bennett. Trustees—Wm. Markley, George C. K. Sample and B. F. Marple.

The new instruments, purchased by the band in Philadelphia about one week ago, were expected yesterday, but they failed to come.

John S. Sauer, Jr., celebrated his 33d birthday last evening by a "surprise party" of from fifty to sixty guests of his friends, who presented him with a handsome breach-loading, double-barreled shot gun.

Locust street, between Fifth and Sixth streets in front of the building of the Washington Institute, is being macadamized. The work is in an advanced stage.

The Vigilant fire company have placed the wheels of their steamer in the hands of J. T. Shroeder to be repaired prior to their visit to Hagerstown, Md., in October. Mr. Shroeder, who is an interested party, will do his work well.

A rainbow was seen to the west at about six o'clock this morning.

Samuel A. Lockard of Harrisburg, Pa., was visiting in Columbia yesterday. The Philadelphia & Reading railroad company will run an excursion to Reading to-morrow morning.

The Susquehanna river is at present a few inches lower than it has been in a number of years.

Yesterday afternoon we noticed that the new fishway is boarded up and that but little water escapes. The dam is as dry as punk.

Workmen are now engaged in repairing the fourth pier beyond the iron span of the bridge.

The Republics "helmet" company expect their equipment to-day.

"The trouble in getting pig-iron" is the reason given for the non-starting of the Shawnee rolling mill a week or two ago.

Has fishing is right good about the pier of the bridge.

The telegraph man who came here a few days ago have finished stretching wires at this place and have gone farther west.

The Dauphin county fair has been postponed to the 10th of October. The fair has been postponed to the 10th of October.

Has fishing is right good about the pier of the bridge.

The raft stuck at this end of the dam was closed yesterday. This closing will occasion somewhat of a rise in the river, which has already risen three inches.

Mr. J. A. Knight will leave here for Hagerstown to-day.

George Schuler, carpenter, 128 North Water street, died this morning after a short but painful illness. He was in good health up to Sunday afternoon, when he was seized with cramps, and though he had the best medical attendance, he continued to grow weaker until about 6 o'clock this morning when he died.

Mr. Schuler was a native of Lancaster and spent the greater part of his life here. He was an industrious and excellent mechanic, an upright and honest citizen, and an unswerving friend from youth up.

At the time of his death he was in the 68th year of his age. He leaves a wife and two grown sons and two daughters. The time of the funeral has not yet been fixed, as his son Albert is absent in Warren, Pa., and the family desire to give him time to be present at the funeral.

Mr. Keyser's decease. Mrs. Keyser, wife of Leonard Keyser, of New Holland, died very suddenly at the residence of her son-in-law, Wm. Rummels, in Manheim, on Sunday. It appears that she arose as usual, and was engaged in combing her hair when she fell over and died almost instantly. Mrs. Keyser was a large woman, weighing over 200 pounds, and heart disease or apoplexy was the cause of her death. Her body was removed to New Holland and the funeral took place to-day.

THE PARADE. Route of Procession for Friday Night's Democratic Torchlight Procession.

At a meeting of the Democratic city committee, held at central headquarters last evening, and to which were present also the colonel of battalion, Wm. J. Forney, and members of his staff, the following route of procession was agreed upon for Friday night's general torchlight parade of the Democratic organization of the city:

The clubs will mass on Orange and Chestnut streets, right resting on North Queen (full details of formation will be published to-morrow), and move as follows: North to South, past Jacob's house, (passing monument on east side), to Middle, to East King, to Plum, to Orange, to Duke, to Frederick, to North Queen, to James, to Mulberry, to Orange, to Mary, to West King, to Downward, to Manor, to West King, to East King (passing monument on south side), to Ann, and counter-march to Centre Square and dismiss.

Col. Forney desires all members of his staff and mounted aids to report at central headquarters this evening at half-past seven.

Chimney Blown Down. This morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, during a gale of wind the top of the chimney of the high two-story brick building belonging to the Pennsylvania railroad on the east side of North Queen street above Chestnut was blown, and fell with a crash upon the roof of a one-story building adjoining, occupied by Mrs. Catherine Bittner.

The falling chimney struck exactly on the comb of the roof, blowing it away, and the bricks were thickly strewn on the pavement in front and in the yard in rear of the premises, but luckily no one was hurt, though persons were passing on the street within a few yards of the place, and some children were playing just inside the door in front of the alyahue came down. Moral: look to your chimney tops before the blasts of winter set in.

Going Over to Berks. The Reading News says that a Republican meeting was held at Fritztown, Berks county, on Saturday evening, and all those in attendance were Republicans resident in Lancaster county.

J. I. Steinmetz, esq., is booked for a speech at the great Democratic mass meeting in Reading, October 9th.

Pay Your Water Rent. By direction of the water committee of city council, held this morning, an inspection of the water works, commenced shutting off the water from all water-renters who have failed to pay their water rent, and he will continue to do so until all delinquents are deprived of the use of city water.

IN MEMORIAM.
